

FROM SUNDAY

7-11 ROME CHAMBER MUSIC FESTIVAL

In the grand salon of sumptuous Palazzo Barberini, under the spectacular frescoed ceiling by Pietro da Cortona, world-class instrumentalists as well as rising young talents participate in the Rome Chamber Music Festival. The five-day event features some of the best-loved works of chamber music by composers such as Brahms, Schubert, and Beethoven, as well as more contemporary pieces by John Adams, Philip Glass, and Arvo Pärt (p58).

- 17 See the Forum of Caesar since ancient times (pp
- 18 Just a few days left to v the Scuderie del Quirin
- 19 See Tchaikovsky's La Da Opera at Teatro Costar
- 20 Revel in an entire nigh Cecilia's Gershwin Gala
- 21 British pop musician S at the Ippodromo Cap
- 22 Sensational Italian trio Auditorium PDM (p53)
- 23 Marvel at choreograp Ballet at the Baths of C
- 24 Puccini's tragic maste Rome Opera's Teatro
- 25 Catch the famed Engl the Pet Shop Boys, at
- 26 Italian singer-songwr performs at the Stadi
- 27 Photographs by Flore among the ruins of th
- 28 Closing day of the Et the Museum of Rom
- 29 Bob Dylan and his Ba ruins of the ancient B
- 30 Witness British rock b